

Press release from Kansas County Treasurer's Association

July 1, 2013

Cheryl Lippold, Brown County Treasurer Completes Certification

Brown County Treasurer Cheryl Lippold, has been certified as a "Kansas County Treasurer Finance Executive" from the Fort Hays State University Docking Institute of Public Affairs. To complete this certification the Treasurer must complete 102 hours of certification. The Kansas County Treasurer's Association feels this certification is vital in the day to day operation in the County Treasurers Office as it incorporates public service values, management skills, investment, banking and accounting procedures. Completion of this certification reflects a commitment to public service and dedication of the Treasurer to improve the knowledge needed to serve the public. Cheryl Lippold has served as Brown County Treasurer for 10 years. Certificates were awarded June 13, 2013 at the Kansas County Treasurer's Association Seminar held in Wichita, Kansas.